Fact Bank

During Carnival time, in Spain, people celebrate “Carnaval” by dressing up, singing, dancing, and having a good time!

Fact Bank

Easter in Spain is famous for its “Semana Santa (Holy Week) processions. Local brotherhoods called “cofradías” carry large, decorated floats (pasos) with statues of Jesus and Mary through the streets. People dress in traditional robes, and tall, pointed hoods. It's a time for families to come together, watch the processions and sometimes eat special treats.
